conditions provided by law for certain activities and advised the company to remove from its object of activity those CAEN codes that it does not carry out.

The removal of the codes was requested so that the object of activity in the Articles of Incorporation would reflect/contain only those activities that SNN actually carries out, in light of the provisions of Article 122(1) and (4) of Law No. 265/2022 on the trade register and amending and supplementing other normative acts with an impact on registration in the trade register, which states that:

"Article 122

(1) The applicant must submit, together with the application for registration, a standard declaration on their own responsibility regarding the fulfilment of the conditions for the operation/carrying out of the activity for the registered office/professional office and/or secondary offices or, where applicable, to third parties.

(4) If the object of activity or authorised activities, the registered office/business premises change or new secondary premises are established, as well as in the event of temporary interruption of activity of authorised natural persons, sole proprietorships, family businesses or companies that have been operating since their establishment or resumption of activity, the applicant shall submit to the one-stop shop within the trade registry office a new standard declaration for the registered office/business premises and/or secondary offices, as the case may be, to third parties, corresponding to the changes that have taken place and certifying the current situation for the performance of all activities declared in the object of activity.

Following the elimination of activities that have received comments from the Trade Register Office, as well as activities that are not actually carried out by the company, the secondary object of activity of SNN would include, together with the activities that are subject to approval in order to complete the object of activity by the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders on 20.11.2025 , the following activities:
