Amendment of the Scope of Business

Art. 6 The scope of business may only be amended by resolution of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, under the terms, and in observance, of the legislation in force.

Chapter 3

Share capital, shares, bonds

Share capital

NUCLEARELECTRICA

Art. 7 (1) The share capital of the commercial company is RON 3,016,438,940, fully subscribed and paid up by the Company's shareholders. The share capital is divided into 301,643,894 registered shares, issued in dematerialised form, with a face value of RON 10.00 each.

(2) The share capital is held by the following shareholders, as follows:

a) The Romanian State, through the Ministry of Energy, as line ministry, holds a total of 248,850,476 shares, with a total value of RON 2,488,504,760, accounting for 82.4981% of the social capital of the Company;

b) Other shareholders, either Romanian or foreign natural persons and legal entities, hold a total number of 52,793,418 shares, with a total value of RON 527,934,180, accounting for 17.5019% of the social capital of the Company.

(3) The identification data of each shareholder, their respective contributions to the share capital, the number of shares each is entitled to, and their respective share of the total share capital are entered into the Shareholders' Register kept in a computer system by the Central Depository.

(4) The rights and obligations attached to the share capital of Nuclearelectrica, for the part of the share capital held by the Romanian State, are exercised and carried out, for and on behalf of the Romanian State, by the line ministry, under the authority of which the Company is placed.

Share Capital Decrease or Increase

Art. 8 (1) The share capital may be decreased or increased under a resolution of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, under the terms of, and in compliance with, the procedure set out by the law.

(2) The share capital may be increased by:

- a) new cash and/or in-kind contributions, under the terms of the law;
- b) incorporating the reserves, save for the statutory reserves and the positive differences from revaluation of the assets and statutory, as well as the issue benefits or premiums;
- c) setting off liquid and due claims against Nuclearelectrica with its shares;
- d) other sources determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders, according to the law.

(3) The shares issued to increase the social capital shall be first offered for underwriting to the existing shareholders, pro-rata with the number of shares they hold, thus granting them a pre-emptive right to underwriting the newly issued shares. This pre-emptive right shall be exercised in observance of the provisions of the applicable laws.

(4) The share capital may be reduced by:

- a) reducing the number of shares;
- b) reducing of the face value of the shares;
- c) acquiring the shares, and then cancelling them;
- d) any other methods regulated under the law.

(5) Where the Board of Directors finds that, due to losses disclosed in the approved annual financial statements, the net assets of the Company, determined that the difference between its total assets and its total liabilities, have dropped below half of the subscribed share capital, it shall call the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to meet forthwith and resolve on whether the Company should be wound up or not. Should it not resolve on its winding up, the Company is required, before the end of the financial year following that where the losses concerned were incurred, to proceed to decreasing its share capital by an amount equal at least to that of the losses that could not be covered from reserves, where the Company's net assets could not be reinstated to at least half of its share capital during this time period.

(6) The share capital may only be decreased once two months have lapsed since publication of the relevant resolution of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part IV, according to the legal provisions.”

Shares

Art. 9 (1) The Company's shares are registered, of equal value and issued in dematerialized form, by registration in the account, and entitle their respective holders to equal rights.

(2) The face value of a share is RON 10.

(3) Shares are indivisible with respect to Nuclearelectrica, which recognises only one owner for each share. Where a share becomes held by more persons, Nuclearelectrica and/or the Central Depository are under no obligation to enter the transfer thereof as long as the persons concerned fail to appoint a single representative to exercise the rights attached to that share. The records of shares are kept by the Central Depository which, at the request of any shareholder, may issue a statement of account indicating the number of shares held.

(4) The Company's shares may be encumbered by a right of usufruct or may be pledged, under the terms of the law.

(5) The Company's shares are freely transferable, and the Company may acquire its own shares under the terms of the law.

(6) A resolution of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders may be passed for the issuance of preferential shares with priority dividend, but without voting rights, in observance of the terms of the law.

Bonds

Art. 10 The Company is authorized to issue bonds in accordance with the law.

Rights and obligations arising from the shares

Art. 11 (1) Each share subscribed and paid up in full by the shareholders entitles to equal rights and grants them one vote in the General Meeting of Shareholders, the right to elect and be elected in the management bodies, the right to participate in profit distribution according to the provisions of this Articles of Incorporation and the legal provisions, as well as other rights provided by this Articles of Incorporation and the legal provisions. The shares issued in dematerialized form are traded on a regulated market, in accordance with the stock market legislation.

- (2) By holding any shares, the respective holders thereof acknowledge they are bound by the Articles of Incorporation.
- (3) The rights and obligations attached to shares follow the shares, when these are transferred to other persons.
- (4) When a registered share becomes property of more people, a transfer thereof may only be registered if the persons concerned appoint a single representative to exercise the rights that the law affords to shareholders.
- (5) The obligations of the Company are guaranteed by its share capital and the shareholders are liable up to the value of the shares they hold.
- (6) The assets of the Company may not be encumbered by debts or other personal obligations of the shareholders.
- (7) Shareholders have the right to receive correct and complete information about the standing of the Company in the General Meeting of Shareholders. When new shares are issued, the existing shareholders have the right of preference to their subscription, under the terms of the law, pro-rata with the percentage of shares held in the Company.

Assignment of the shares

- Art. 12 (1) Shares are indivisible with respect to the Company, which recognises only one owner for each share.
- (2) An assignment of all or part of the shares between shareholders or to third parties may only be conducted under the terms of, and in observance of the procedure provided by, the law.
 - (3) Any transaction with shares of the Company is carried out in keeping with the legislation in force applicable to organized securities markets.

Chapter 5

The Board of Directors

Organization and Functioning of the Board of Directors

Art. 19 (1) The company is managed under single-tier system. The executive body of the company is the Board of Directors, consisting of 7 (seven) members of which at least 4 (four) members must be independent directors. The members of the Board of Directors will be elected for a 4-year term of office, and can be re-elected. The members of the Board of Directors are elected by the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, according to the legal provisions.

(2) In case of vacancy of one or more positions of directors, the Board of Directors proceeds with the appointment of provisional directors, until the gathering of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

(3) Directors may be revoked at any time by the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. Each director must expressly accept the exercise of their respective office. The company must celebrate a D&O type insurance.

(4) During their term of office, directors may not enter into an employment contract with the company. If the directors have been appointed from among the company's employees, the employment contract is automatically suspended de jure as of the date of acceptance of the term of office.

(5) The members of the Board of Directors must exercise their mandate with prudence and diligence of a good director, with loyalty, in the interest of the Company and are not allowed to disclose confidential information and business secrets of the Company.

(6) The Board of Directors is managed by a Chairman. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is elected by the Board of Directors among its members. The Chief Executive Officer of the Company cannot fulfil this condition, even if he/she is a member of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is appointed for a period that may not exceed the term of office of director and may be revoked at any time by the Board of Directors. The Chairman coordinates the activity of the Board and reports related to this to the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Chairman ensures the proper functioning of the company's decision-making bodies.

(7) The meetings of the Board of Directors will be convened as follows:

- a) by the Chairman of the Board of Directors (or by a member of the Board of Directors based on a mandate granted by the Chairman) as often as necessary, but at least once every 3 (three) months;
- b) by the Chairman of the Board of Directors at the reasoned request of any two members of the Board of Directors or of the Chief Executive Officer, provided that the items included in the request fall within the powers of the Board of Directors;
- c) by two members of the Board of Directors, if the Chairman fails to convene the meeting of the Board of Directors as mentioned at para. (a) and (b) above.

- (8) The meetings of the Board of Directors will be convened by a notice transmitted at least 3 (three) working days before the date proposed to hold the meeting. The notification period will not include the day of transmission and the day of the meeting. The notification will be sent to all members of the Board of Directors, according to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation.
- (9) The convening of the meeting of the Board of Directors will be transmitted to every member of the Board of Directors in written, by facsimile or by electronic mail. Each member of the Board of Directors must notify the Company in writing, by facsimile or e-mail, of any change in the address and/or facsimile number, as the case may be, of the respective member of the Board of Directors, and shall not be entitled to object to the Company for any irregularities relating to the notification if the change of address and/or facsimile number has not been notified this way by the member of the Board of Directors.
- (10) The convening on the gathering of the Board of Directors will mention the date and time of meeting, as well as the fact that it will be held at the Company's office (unless the convocation mentions another place, in which case the address shall be mentioned). The convening of the meeting of the Board of Directors shall also mention the agenda and shall comprise the entire documentation corresponding to the items of the agenda to be discussed within the meeting.
- (11) The Board of Directors cannot decide related to some items that are not included on the agenda, unless all attending members agree to their inclusion on the agenda.
- (12) The Board of Directors shall meet, as a rule, at the registered office of the company or operational meetings of the Board of Directors may be organized by remote communication means that should meet the technical conditions necessary for the identification of the attendants, their effective participation in the meetings of the Board of Directors and the continuous retransmission of the deliberations (telephone, video-conference or other communication equipment), as often as necessary, but at least once every 3 months, at the call of the Chairman or at the motivated request of 2 of its members or of the Chief Executive Officer. If the Board of Directors is convened at the request of two of its members or of the Chief Executive Officer, the convening will be transmitted within at the most 7 (seven) days as of the receipt of the request.
- (13) If technically possible, any member of the Board may validly participate in a meeting of the Board or of the advisory committee by means of teleconference, videoconference or any other form of communications equipment, provided that such equipment enables the participants to be identified, to participate effectively in the Board meeting and to transmit the meeting on a continuous basis.
- (14) A person who participates by teleconference, videoconference or any other form of communications equipment that complies with the requirements established at the paragraph above shall be deemed to be present in person at that meeting and shall be counted for the purposes of establishing a quorum and shall be entitled to vote.
- (15) The Board of Directors is chaired by the Chairman and, in his/her absence, by a member based on the mandate of the Chairman. The Chairman appoints a Secretary among the Company's employees.

(16) The Board of Directors takes valid decisions in the presence of a majority of its members, and the decisions within the Board of Directors are taken with the majority of attending members. The decision related to the appointment or revocation of the Chairman of the Board of Directors is taken with the vote of the majority members of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board will have the casting vote in case of a tie.

(17) The members of the Board of Directors may be represented at meetings only by other members of the Board based on a special written power of attorney or a general discretionary mandate. A member of the Board of Directors may represent only one absent member.

(18) The debates of the Board of Directors take place according to the agenda established and communicated by the Chairman at least 3 working days in advance. These ones shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting, written in a register sealed and initialled by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

(19) The minutes shall be signed by all attending members of the Board of Directors and by the Secretary. According to the minutes, the Secretary of the Board of Directors drafts his/her decision, which shall be signed by the Chairman, by the Secretary and by at least another one member of the Board of Directors.

(20) The members of the Board of Directors may perform any act connected with the management of the Company in its interest, within the limits of the rights conferred on them.

(21) In exceptional cases, justified by the urgency of the situation and the interests of the company, the decisions of the Board of Directors may be taken by unanimous written vote of the members, without a meeting. For a decision to be taken without a meeting, the proposal must be communicated in writing, including by email and accompanied by the relevant documentation, prior to the decision making. This procedure cannot be used for decisions of the Board of Directors regarding the financial statements or the authorized capital.

(22) The Chairman and the members of the Board of Directors shall attend the meetings. As the case may be, the Chairman of the Board of Directors may invite executive directors, internal auditors, as well as other employees of the company or specialists in various fields of activity from outside the company to the meetings for additional information. The President of the trade union may also be invited to discuss issues of professional, economic and social interest. In order to defend the professional, economic and social rights and interests of the members, he/she shall receive from the company's management the information necessary to negotiate the collective bargaining agreements. The items of the decisions of the Board of Directors related to issues of professional, economic and social interest shall be communicated in writing to the representative union, within two working days as of the meeting date.

(23) The members of the Board of Directors are jointly and severally liable towards the company for:

- a) the reality of the payments made by shareholders;
- b) the real existence of dividends paid;
- c) the existence of the registers required by law and their correct keeping;
- d) the accurate fulfilment of the decisions of the General Meetings of Shareholders;

During the time when the Romanian State is a shareholder, the Company's legal status may only be amended with the approval of the line ministry, under the authority of which the Company is placed, by representatives empowered to represent the interests of the State capital.
(2) The new company will comply with the legal registration and advertising formalities required for the establishment of companies.

Dissolution of the Company

Art. 33 (1) The dissolution of the Company may take place in the following situations:

- a) the impossibility of achieving the Company's business objective;
- b) the declaration of nullity of the Company;
- c) the resolution of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, taken in accordance with the provisions of art. 15 of these Articles of Incorporation;
- d) bankruptcy of the Company;
- e) other situations regulated by legal provisions.

(2) The dissolution of the Company must be registered at the competent territorial Trade Register Office and published in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part IV, in compliance with the relevant legislation.

Liquidation of the Company

Art. 34 (1) In case of winding-up, the Company shall be liquidated.
(2) The liquidation of the Company and the distribution of the assets shall be carried out under the conditions and in accordance with the procedure provided by law.

Disputes

Art. 35 Litigation of any kind arising between the Company and Romanian or foreign individuals and/or legal entities are under the jurisdiction of the courts.

Chapter 9 Closing provisions

Art. 36 (1) These Articles of Incorporation may be amended by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, in accordance with Romanian law.

(2) The provisions of these Articles of Incorporation shall be supplemented by the provisions of Law no. 31/1990, republished and amended, and other applicable legal provisions in force, as well as the capital market legislation governing the activity of issuers whose shares are admitted to trading on a regulated market.
